

The Ten Commandments for Fighting Fraud

Gary Miller, Partner

Mishcon de Reya Solicitors
Fraud & Insolvency Group

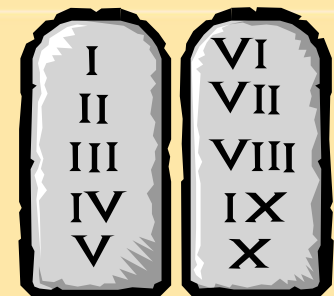

The First Commandment

Thou shalt investigate before thou shalt interrogate

The Second Commandment

Thou shalt not make wrongful use of Old Bill

The Third Commandment

Thou shalt not confuse experience with expertise

The Fourth Commandment

Thou shalt Norwich thy neighbour as he would Norwich you

The Fifth Commandment

Thou shalt freeze first and litigate later

The Sixth Commandment

Thou shalt search and seize whilst thou freezes

The Seventh Commandment

Thou shalt keep thy friends close but thy enemies closer

The Eighth Commandment

Thou shalt use thy Windows

The Ninth Commandment

Thou shalt get in, get out and get on with life

The Tenth Commandment

Thou shalt honour thy spouse ...and thy lovers

The Ten Commandments Go Forth and Multi-Apply

Gary Miller, Partner

Mishcon de Reya Solicitors
Fraud & Insolvency Group